Honor Flight Network Invites Bud Roberds To Washington DC

Excerpts Reprinted -Village News Tom Ferrall -- Staff Writer

Fallbrook, CA....Longtime Fallbrook resident Bud Roberds, a 98-year-old World War II veteran, recently enjoyed "a wonderful trip" when he joined 79 other veterans in traveling from San Diego to Washington D.C. – with all expenses paid – courtesy of Honor Flight San Diego.HFSD is a non-profit branch of the nationwide Honor Flight Network which consists of over 130 independent "hubs" across America. Honor Flight's mission is "to transport America's veterans to Washington, D.C. to visit those memorials dedicated to honor the service and sacrifices of themselves and their friends." "I was impressed with the organization," said Roberds. "It was all top-notch."

Roberds, who as the son of a musician grew up learning to play various instruments, taught music at a school in San Jacinto for nine years before he and his wife, Jewell, moved to Fallbrook in 1956. Roberts was employed as a music teacher by both the Fallbrook Elementary and Fallbrook High School School districts for four years before he became full-time at the high school in 1960.

Roberds counts his two children – Bill (class of 1969) and Lorraine (class of 1972) – among the students he taught at Fallbrook High School before retiring from the school in 1979.

Roberds is a member of the California Retired Teachers Association and a parishioner at St. Peter the Apostle. He has been performing at Peking Wok since 1990 (the restaurant was in Vista back then) and still drives himself to and from work. His mind is razor sharp.

Roberds sometimes is too active for his own good, as was the case in 2007 when, at age 87, he broke his left leg.

"I was putting up Christmas decorations and fell off the roof onto the concrete," said Roberds with a guilty smile.

Roberds bounced back from that injury, just as he has from his most recent fall, proving the saying, "you can't keep a good man down."

DID YOU KNOW?....

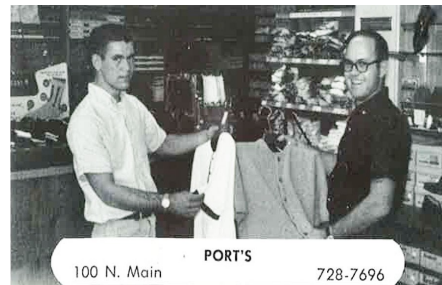

Storefront on Main Street

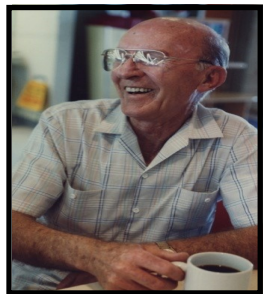

Mike Port was the owner of Fallbrook's Port's Clothing Store located on the corner of Main and Alvarado. He provided Fallbrook with men's clothing, athletic apparel, and rented tuxedos for our high school's formal dances from 1953 until 1991. For many high school students, working at Port's was their first real job. His two sons, Mike and Gerry, are both graduates of Fallbrook High School.

Marion Clemmens graduated FUHS in 1936! He is our oldest alumni and oldest Fallbrook-born resident. A former Pioneer of the Year, Marion turns 100 this July, 2018! Many will remember him from his years in the post office, and he was the first mail carrier to walk the downtown route. After retiring in 1972 he worked as a volunteer for the Fallbrook Historical Society, serving as the maintenance man and grounds keeper until 2005. His three daughters are all Fallbrook graduates.

Kathleen Stiles was born in Kenedy Texas and married Paul Stiles in 1943 and lived in Dallas moving to Fallbrook in 1953. Mom taught in Temecula for 9 yrs. and was Principal for six of those years. She taught at Elsinore High school until retirement. Mom and Dad were two of the founding members of the Fallbrook Vintage Car Club.

Our hardworking, go-to alumna (Class of 1960) Eleanor (Nora) Hutchins was recently elected to the Vista Historical Society Hall of Fame for her volunteer work in the community. We are so proud of her many accomplishments and even though she supports the Vista "Panther" now, she was a "Warrior" first and Forever! How lucky we are to have Nora working with us! Congratulations!

Roman Sanchez with a yearbook from 1960 and the one for 2018; what a difference! He is also holding a check from the Association that will be used to help defray the cost of the yearbook for students who might otherwise be unable to afford one.

We did it! Another successful back-pack packing event is in the books.

Well.....how are we doing so far? I hope these pictures say MORE than "thousands of words". That way I can keep it short. There are just a couple of points I wish to make regarding YOU...our devoted members. Our roster includes over 250 "Forever Warriors", most of whom live far away. Still, every year, when I reach out for help, you come forward. This year has been no exception. Our Students at Fallbrook High School had a wide variety of needs, which they were asked to fund personally. Because of your caring nature, and your willingness to "give back" to Fallbrook High School, we were able to financially help make things possible. You are the "un-sung heroes". Your individual support of our adventures does not go un-noticed. So...on behalf of each one of you, I wish to thank each one of you. Without you, nothing happens.

If you are able, I invite you to please join us on Sunday, October 21, 2018 at Live Oak Park where we will celebrate each other and have a PICNIC!!

See you then!!!! (if the creeks don't rise) :)
